

The region?:

Elevated environment:

Trojena experiences sub-zero winter temperatures and has a year-round moderate climate that is significantly cooler than the rest of the region. This environment will enable the Gulf's first outdoor ski experience, featuring three months of winter snow.

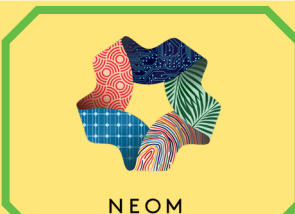

The Nature?:

On your doorstep:
With its pure mountain air and panoramic views, Trojena will be a mesmerizing place to live and visit. It is home to diverse wildlife and geology, making it a paradise for adventure-seekers. Trojena will also be a center for stargazing and feature a high-tech observatory among other state-of-the-art facilities.

TROJENA: The Mountains of NEOM

A year-round mountain destination
Trojena, located on the mountain of Jebel al Lawz, rises to altitudes up to 2,600 meters above sea level. Thanks to its high elevation, magnificent natural beauty and year-round moderate climate, it is set to redefine luxury mountain living and hospitality while becoming a world-class center for winter sports and adventure.
